

Please reconsider the NPRM to allow Kenwood's Sky Command system to operate from 145.8 to 146 Mhz. There are currently several amateur radio satellites utilizing uplinks in this band segment that would suffer interference from even a low power link such as Sky Command.